

Marcin Werla

Poznań Supercomputing and Network Center, Poland

Marcin Werla, M.Sc. Eng., is the leader of the Digital Libraries Team (<http://dl.psnc.pl/>) in the PSNC Network Services Department. He works on the development of dLibra Digital Library Framework, Digital Libraries Federation service and also participated in several European projects and national research and development projects in the field of digital libraries. Marcin is also the main organizer of the annual national “Digital Libraries” workshop and “Polish Digital Libraries” Conference held by PSNC. His professional interests include interoperability and architecture of digital libraries and management of software development projects. He has authored or co-authored several dozen papers in professional journals and conference proceedings.