

© Tracy K.Flemming

2010

Table of Contents

Chapter

I.	Introduction: Travel and the Pan-African Imagination.....	1
II.	Acculturation and Resistance: The Origins of Pan-Africanism in the Black Atlantic World.....	23
III.	Sojourning after Truth.....	54
IV.	“We need some African power”: Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Conservative Origins of Black Power Ideology, 1832-1912.....	102
V.	Conclusion: Anglo-Africans and Negro Saxons Writing the History of Black Nationalism.....	141
	Bibliography.....	158