

FOREWORD FROM CHAIRMAN

On The 10th International Conference on Numerical Analysis in Engineering (10th NAE)
BANDA ACEH, August 24-25, 2017

Good morning and best wishes for all of us.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

First of all, let us praise and gratitude to the Almighty God for His blessings and permission of His grace so we can be present and come together during this blessed day on the 10th International Conference on Numerical Analysis in Engineering (NAE) 2017. It is our pleasure to welcome all of us to Banda Aceh and to this high-quality conference. I am honored to inform you that organizer and IOP has signed an Agreement to publish the proceeding of this conference in Material Science and Engineering; Conference Series. The proceeding will be indexed in several reputable databases such as Scopus, Thompson, Compendex, etc.

FYI, after call for paper was announced several months ago, almost 100 papers have been submitted to organizer. After the review process, only about 53 papers are accepted.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I would to inform that our authors and or participants today come from 5 different countries. They are from Malaysia, Japan, Taiwan, Uganda, and Indonesia. This event is expected to become an excellent platform for knowledge exchange among academician, researchers, scientists, engineers, students and all related stakeholders. By gathering here, we expect the conference will offer the participants to network, collaborate, as well as to share research finding and experience. So please build your network.

On behalf of organizer we would like to thank our keynote speakers today. Professor Akiyuki Takahashi from Tokyo University of Science and Prof Kamal Arifin from University Kebangsaan Malaysia. Your contributions to this international conference are highly appreciated. Our thank you also goes to our international board and steering committee. I would also express special thanks to all of the founders; Prof Hiromi Homma, Prof Masanori Kikuchi, Prof Kokuo Kishimoto, and Prof Yasuhiro Kanto.

Finally, I would like to express my gratitude to all distinguished speakers and all respected participants for contributing in this conference. Countless appreciation to the organizing committee for the hard work in realizing this conference.

I earnestly hope that this conference and the time you spend here will provide you with a fruitful and rewarding experience.

Thank you for all of you.
